How I Found Myself in the Midwest: a Memoir of Reinvention
by Steve Grove

In a passionate testimony to the power of moving forward by going back home, a Minnesota native shares hope in going local. After 20 years at Google, Steve Grove returned to MN with his family to head an agency in Governor Walz' administration. Grove's journey through crisis and deep divisions brings new insights about himself and his new community. His experiences of the political, geographic, and racial divisions in his home state yield surprising discoveries about what also binds us together.
